NEW SERIES.

WINCHESTER, RANDOLPH COUNTY, INDIANA: THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 20, 1860.

VOL. 3.-NO. 33

THE Randolph County Journal PUBLISHED BY B. F. DIGGS,

EVERY THURSDAY MORNING.

TERMS: One Dollar and a half a year in advance. No PAPER DISCONTINUED TILL ALL AR- moderate.

REARS ARE PAID. OFFICE: On Main Street. East side, over W. B. Pierce's Drug Store.

-RATES OF ADVERTISING: Ine square, 10 lines, one insertion, . SI 00 Each additional insertion, Quarter column, one year, 25 00 " 55 00

LEGAL advertisements MUST be paid Unless a particular time is specified when handed in, ADVERTISEMENTS will be published until ordered out, and charged

ADVERTISEMENTS, to insure insertion the same week, should be handed in by Tuesday morning.

for accordingly.

Business Lirectory. MEREDITH HOUSE,

WM. A. PEELLE. PEELLE & NEFF.

Attorneys and Counselors at Law. Office in the new Jail Building. Will practice in the Circuit and Common Pleas Courts, the Supreme Court and the U. S. Court for the District of Indiana. Especial attention given to the col-Mr. Neff is also Notary Public.

CAREY S. GOODRICH, Attorney and Counselor at Law.

Office 1st Floor in New Jail Building. Will promotly attend to all business ento the security and collection of claims. KNOS L. WATSON JOHN B. GOODRICH.

GOODRICH & WATSON, Atterneys and Counselors at Law. Office Up Stairs in the New Jail, Lard etc., etc., wanted, at fair prices. Will promptly attend to all business enrusted to their care. Especial attention given to the securing and collection of claims

SILAS COLGROVE,

Attorney & Counselor at Law, West Public Square, Winchester, Ind. Will promptly and diligently attend to all business entrusted to his care.

T. M. BROWSE. BROWNE & CHENEY. Attorneys at Law.

Ofice in the new Jail Building. Sirs especial attention to the collection and security of claims.

A. F. TEAL, M. D. PHYSICIAN AND SURGEON, WINCHESTER, INDIANA.

OFFICE:-Frankiin St., one door West of the Past-Office. He may always be found at his office or residence, unless professionally engaged.

DR. GEO. O. JOBES,

Physician and Surgeon, Office East part of town, HUNTSVILLE, IND. He will always be found at his office unless professionally engaged. Dr. D. FERGUSON, Office at his old stand, cor Main & South St.

less professionally engaged. Dr. J. E. BEVERLY, Physician and Surgeon,

Where he may at all times be found un

Office and residence in brick building, cor mer of North and East streets Winchester, Ind.

DR. R. W. HAMILTON, WINCHESTER, IND.

OFFICE, over H. P. Kizer's Drug Store, with Dr. Fordick.

John B. Crowley, M. D., PHYSICIAN AND SURGEON, Graduate of Philadelphia College of Medi-

eine, and Philadelphia Lying In-Charity, embracing Practical Obstetrics and diseases

Anatomy, and having spent three years in the Hospitals and Dispensaries of Philadelphia, and being supplied with excellent Surgiest Ir, straments, he is prepared to perform all operations in the various departments of Particular attention paid to diseases of the Eye. OFFICE-Washington Street, near the north-west corner of the Public Square, Winchester, Ind. May 17, 1860.

W. B. PIERCE, DRUGGIST. BOOKS AND STATIONARY,

H. P. KIZER,

DRUGGIST. DEALER IN DRUGS, CHEMICALS, OILS, PAINTS.

PATENT MEDICINES, EVERY VARIETY OF NOTIONS, ETC. JOHN ROSS,

DEALER IN Groceries & Provisions, N. E. corner Maic & Franklin streets, Winchester, Ind.

M. A. REEDER, CARPENTER AND BUILDER, Shop on Washington St.,

JOSEPH PUCKETT,

Public Square, Winchester.

H. W. FOSDICK,

RESIDENT DENTIST, OFFICE over Kizer's Drug Store.

FRANKLIN HOUSE, WINCHESTER, INDIANA. ALEX. WHITE,.... PROPRIETOR

Boarders kept by the day or week. Ample accommodations for travelers. Charges

The Mansion House, WINCHESTER, IND.

and newly furnished, and is now an inviting stopping place to boarders and travel-

PALMER HOUSE, INDIANAPOLIS, IND.

Fare reduced to $1 50 per day. United States Hotel, JOHN T. WATSON, PROPRIETOR. SOUTH-WEST CORNER OF

Sixth and Walnut Streets,

Winchester & Cowles, Proprietors An omnibus will convey travelers to and from the depot free of charge, and every thing about the establishment satisfactorilydone on the square. Patronage respectfully solicited. | oct13 |

SEARL HOUSE, ALLEN WALL, PROPRIETOR

Deerfield , Indiana.

South-East corner of Public Square, opposite the Franklin House, Winchester, Ind.

Staple and Fancy DRY GOODS, Boots, State, under the law thereof, escaping Shoes, Hats, Caps, Notions, Ludies' Dress Goods, etc., for sale at low prices. Butter, Eggs, Rags, Feathers, Bacon, E. J. PUTMAN, WHOLESALE AND RETAIL DEALER IN staple and Fancy Dry Goods.

GROCERIES. 图 Deals in all kinds of GRAJN.

Depot, Winchester, Ind. N. H. WARD. MANUFACTURER OF Saddles and Harness,

THOS. WARD,

HARDWARE MERCHANT, Washington st., north of the Public Square.

JOHN RICHARDSON,

Merchant Tailor. Shop west of the public square, Winchester.

ROBBINS & POMEROY. DEALERS IN NO. 57 PEARL STREET.

CINCINNATI, O Samuel L. Robbins, Adam B. Rabbins. lames P. Pomeray.

MAMMOTH

M. SHIRE & BROTHER.

PROPRIETORS. No. 72 MAIN ST., OFFOSITE CITY HOTEL.

RICHMOND, IND. former friends and patrons to give persons .- [Madison's Deba', p. 1569. under discussion. them a call, when visiting Richmond, Shall hant Tailoring Establishment. M. SHIRE & BRO.

Kile, Cleveland & Co. Roberts Block, opposite | Indianarous. SOLE AGENTS FOR THE

AND ABRIDGEMENT OF THE DEBATES OF CONGRESS, FOR INDIANA AND OHIO.

BUENA VISTA

BLACKSMITHING, Of all kinds, done on short notice and in and property, without," etc. the best style. East Public Square, under Journal Office. Give us a call at Buena Vista.

ANDREW J. NEFF.

Notary Public. mortgages, powers of attorney, etc. Blank deeds and mortgages always on hand. Office in the new jail building, up stairs, Winehester, Ind.

BLANKS.

JOHN RICHARDSON, Merchant Tailor,

no pains spared to please those who favor STOVES, COPPER, Remember, good French Cloths, Doe Mr. Jackson, of Georgia, in the course local objects; and it makes it free, in of self-culture, of progress in need not go abroad for illustrations of the question. I speak only for my-ry thing else, dependent of the self-culture, of progress in need not go abroad for illustrations of the question. I speak only for my-ry thing else, dependent needs to find them on the right side of shelter. The price of progress in need not go abroad for illustrations of the question. I speak only for my-ry thing else, dependent needs to find them on the right side of shelter. The price of progress in need not go abroad for illustrations of the question. I speak only for my-ry thing else, dependent needs not go abroad for illustrations of the question. TIN & JAPANNED WARE,

Store West of the South west corner of the South west corner of the Shop west side of the public square,

Shop west side of

PROPERTY IN MAN.

ton, of the Revolution, has published duty upon slaves.

Save code, to be enacted by Congress. We believe we thus state the assumpparty as fully and distinctly as they are asserted; and we now intend to thereon, are wholly groundless.

those parts of the Constitution on which his judgment is founded. We, refer to this subject, and then, by the a careful reading. contemporaneous history of the formation of that Constitution, the declarations of its most distinguished members, and the action of the Convention itself, to prove beyond all question that it was the purpose of all to New York Cash Store, exclude slavery, and all idea that there could be property in man, from MUNIUI WIJULIAN

THE PROVISIONS OF THE CONSTITUTION. trusted to hiscare. Strict attention given L. D. & T. S. BUNCH, PROP'RS ART. 4, SEC. 2. CLAUSE 3 .- No person held to service or labor in one into another, shall, in consequence of any law or regulation therein, be discharged from such service or labor, but shall be delivered up on claim of the party to whom such service or labor may be due.

ART. 1, SEC. 2, CLAUSE 3 .- Repre sentatives and direct taxes shall be apportioned among the several States which may be included within this sideration, HATS AND CAPS, BOOTS AND SHOES. Union, according to their respective numbers, which shall be determined

| convicted of the most flagrant crimes | wisest appropriation of the public is slowly taking its place as the | mer, the soil is tilled by the slave .- | ment in 1832, when General Jackson How. James A. Hamilton, sen of were brought in and sold without any lands within the power of Congress highest social truth." the accomplished Alexander Hamil- duty whatever." He opposed the to make, whether viewed in the light | But quitting the ground of right. I must, because it allows him the effer- bable that Texas, whether in or out

These facts prove incontestably that humanity and justice.

Freedom. Mr. Julian was one of the

THE PUBLIC LANDS. SPEECH

OF INDIANA,

DELIVERED IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTA-

TIVES, JANUARY 29, 1851. On the Bill reported from the Committee on provided he or she occupy and cultivate

The motion to reconsider the vote by Mr. Julian said :

to service for a term of years, and ex- I conceive, to the whole country, have rights to secure which "governments the following : cluding Indians not taxed, three-fifths induced me to beg the indulgence of are instituted among men. on application of the Legislature, or because there has been a manifest dis- say, has a natural right to life. What easy and secure, every man was a proprietor, of the Executive when the Legislature position here, during the whole of the are we to understand by this? and the division of property, by rendering speedy interposition of Congress. cannot be convened, against domestic session, to suppress entirely the dis- Surely it will not be contended that luxury impossible, preserved the purity of be property in man. We intend this suspicion that the people are for it, ment. It carries necessarily with it to his country."

Work done in the shop warranted, and they will be the means of inviting away by grants to the States or to please those who favor attack, instead of repeling invasions." chartered companies for special and human being should have the means different ages of the world. But I ed to find them on the right side of shelter. The price of labor, as of eve-of economy, or the brighter light of proceed to some considerations of a cise of no civil rights. It does not of the Union, would never have been of the Constitution of the United Convention, to exclude from the Con- broad ground of natural right. I go productive as labor ean make it. not nerved, nor his labor lightened by order to secure the settlement of her States to slavery. So much of it as refers to the action of the Convention but the detested thing refers to the action of the Convention is worthy but the detested thing but feared the Convention is worthy and we have, therefore, merchandise of the earth, I would am not mistaken, has fallen into the feared against outrage. His own offhat framed the Constitution, is worthy the right to insist—before it can be have this fundamental truth recognized cold grasp of the speculator, who has spring are the property of another. -- money and thousands of lives that [May 3 of all consideration at the present time. asserted, with any title to our respect, by Congress in devising measures for held it in large quantities for years He does not toil for his family, but were sacraficed in that unsanctified that this august and intelligent body the settlement and improvement, thus excluding for a stranger. His wife and children struggle for the extension of human in the New York Daily Times a very it was the deliberate purpose, not of I advocate the freedom of our pub- the clear interest of this Government He has of course no interest in the compelled to exclude slavery by able historical review of the relations individual members alone, but of the lic domain, in the first place, on the to render every acre of its soil as soil upon which he toils. His arm is adopting the same landed policy in the House in a brief statement of the The justness of this reasoning must cultivation was more active, provisions more which our public lands have been fills our streets with profligate women Aur. 4, Sac. 4.—The United States reasons which prize me to give it my be manifest to any one who will give abundant, and individual opuler ce constituted the public wealth. Shop north Public Square, Winchester, Ind shall protect each of the States, . . . support. I do this the more willingly, the subject his attention. Man, we "As the earth was free, and its possession

"thought it wrong to admit in the Many who are opposed to its prin- to life implies what the law books all the animosity of a personal quarrel, and gress a few months since. I beg is badly nursed and fed, and grows up Constitution the idea that there could ciples appear to be haunted by the call a "right of way" to its enjoy- devoted leave to say, however, that I think feeble or in a state of bodily uneasi-Constitution to be the great charter of and hence they will not vote directly the right to the means of living, in . Here, sir, are principles worthy to am contending will be a much better makes his passion's excitable. He is human liberty to the unborn millions against it. They prefer not to face it cluding not only the elements of light, guide our rulers in the disposition of 'settlement' of the slavery question not soothed by the constant tenderness BOOTS AND SHOES, who may enjoy its protection, and in any way. The proceedings on air, fire and water, but land also, the public lands. Give homes to the than the one to which I refer. Donate of a decest mother, who feels it a great who shall never see that such an in- yesterday prove this. The House then Without this, man could have no landless multitudes in the country, the land lying within our Territories, duty to make him as good and happy stitution was ever known in their refused to lay the bill on the table; habitation to shelter him from the and you snatch theny from crime and in limited plantations, to actual set- as she can, and contrives to find time midst." The Convention, concurring but immediately alterwards, its refer- elements, nor raiment to cover and starvation, from the prison and the tlers whose interest and necessity it and thought for that object. He tumin these opinions without debate, un- ence to the Committee of the Whole, protect his body, nor food to sustain alms-house, and place them in a sit- will be to cultivate the soil with their blea in the dust of the road or mud of animously resolved that the words which was substantially equivalent, life. These means of living are not untion at once the most conflucive to own hands, and it will be a far more the gutter, snatches food wherever he "slave" and "slavery" should be was carried by a large majority. only necessary, but absolutely indis- virtue, to the prosperity of the counstricken out; and the words "such There was an opportunity of evading pensable. Without them life is im- try, and to loyality to its Government duction of slavery than Mr. Webster's thwarts him if he be a bold boy, and CLOTHING STORE, persons" and "other persons" and "ordinance of nature," or even the cel- sucaks and lies if he be naturally a be substituted wherever they occurred. of accomplishing, by indirection, what are unattainable, except through the outcasts, they will become indepen- ebrated ordinance of Jefferson. Sla- coward. He indulges every appetite, On motion of Randolph, of Virginia, gentlemen did not dare to do by their charity of others. They are at the dent citizens and freeholders, pledged very only thrives on extensive estates. as a matter of course, as it arises: for the word "servitude" was stricken out, open and independent action. I refer mercy of the land holder. Does Gov. by their gratitude to the Government, In a country cut up into small farms, he has no idea that he should not .-and "service" was unanimously in- to these facts because I wish them to ernment then fulfil its mission when by self-interest, and by the affections occupied by as many independent He hates every body who interferes serted, the former being thought to go before the people, I desire the it encourages or permits the monopoly of our nature, to consecrate to honest proprietors who live by their own toil, with his license, and has the lesexpress the condition of slaves, and country to understand the action of of the soil, and thus puts millions in toil the spot on which the family al-THE UNDERSIGNED request their the latter the obligations of free this body, in reference to the question its power, shorn of every right except tar is to be erected and the family cir. be no room for it. Should the bill ceuse with himself. He knows noththe right to beg ? The right to life cle kept unbroken. They will feel, now under discussion become a law, ing of any place or people but those Gonverneur Morris, a delegate from | Our present land system was estab- is an empty mockery if man is to be as never before, the value of free in the poor white laborers of the South, he sees, and never dreams of any world RESIDENCE, Meridian Street, South of the always be glad to see them, and pledge them Pennsylvania, who was as much op- lished by act of Congress as far back denied a place on the earth on which stitutions, and the obligations resting as well as of the North, will flock to beyond that of his own eyes. He Especial attention is called to their Mer. nosed to Slavery as were Washington, as the year 1785. From that time to to establish a home for the shelter upon them as citizens. Should a for- our territories; labor will become com. does not know what society is, or law, Madisop, Randolph, George Mason or the 30th of last September the Gov. and nurture of his family, and employ eign foe invade our shores, having mon and respectable; our democratic or duty; nun therefore, when he int Franklin, says, in a letter to a niend, ernment has sold one hundred and two his hands in obtaining the food and their firesides to de- theory of equality will be realized; jures society and comes under the in-"The hand which writes this letter millions four hundred and eight clothing necessary to his comfort, fend, they would rush to the field of closely associated communities will be flictions of the law, for gross violations wrote the Constitution." To avoid thousand six hundred and forty acres. To say that God has given him the deadly strife, carrying with them 'all established; whilst education, so im- of duty, he understands no more of prolivity, we do not give all the Within the same period it has dona- right to life, and at the same time that the animosity of a personal quarrel.' possible to the masses where slavery what is done to him than if he was declarations of members to the effect ted about fifty millions of acres for the Government may rightfully withhol. Independent farmers,' said President and land monopoly prevail, will be carried through certain ceremonies "that man could not have property in purposes of education, for intenal im- the means of its enjoyment, except by Jackson, 'are everywhere the basis of accessible to the people through their conducted in an unknown tongue. He Having been Assistant Demonstrator of NEW AMERICAN CYCLOPÆDIA man." Mr. Gerry said, "as Congress provements, for the benefit of private the permission of other; is not simply society, and true fri nds of liberty; common schools, and thus physical has some dim notion of glory in dying would have no power over the insti- individuals and companies, and for an absurdity, but a libel on his pro- and an army of such men, however and moral causes will combine in ex- boldly before the eyes of the crowd; tutions within the State, we ought to military services. This calculation vidence. It is true, there are multi- unpracticed in the art of war, would cluding slavery forever from the soil. so be goes to the gallows in a mockbe careful to lend no sanction to it." does not include the land granted by tudes of landless poor in this country, be invincible. Carry out this reform The fr e-lom of the public lands is ing mood, as ignorant of the true im-When the amendment, now a part of the Mexican bounty law of 1847, and in all countries, utterly without of multiplying independent cultiva- therefore an anti-slavery measure. It port of life and human faculties as the the Constitution, declaring that "no which has not yet spent its force, and the power to acquire homes upon the tors, and thus rendering labor at once will weaken the slave power by lend- day he was born. Or, if not laid hold person shall be deprived of life, lib- which will exhaust from twelve to soil, who, nevertheless, are not alto- honorable and gainful, and I verily be- ing the official sanction of the Govern- of by the law, he goes on towards his erty, or property, without due process fifteen millions of acres. The bounty gether destitute of the essential bless- lieve more will be done than could be ment to the natural right of man as grave brawling and drinking, or half of law," was debated in the Virginia law of 1850 will subtract from the ings I have named; but they are de- accomplished by any other means to man, to a home upon the soil, and of asleep in mind and inert or diseased AVE constantly on hand, of their ewn Convention, the Convention felt that public domain the further sum of pendent for them upon the saving break down our military establish- course to the truits of his own labor. this would be fatal to all future right probably about fifty millions of acres. grace of the few who have the mono- ments, and divert the vast sums annu- It will weaken the system of chattel beast dies." ROWS. All of our plaws are warranted to to property in man, and therefore Besides all this, there were very large poly of the soil. They are helpless ally expended in maintaining them- slavery, by making war upon its Here, sir, we have a forcible exhiproposed to make it read "no free grants of land made at the last session pensioners upon the calculating bounty to the arts of peace. It is emphatic- kindred system of wages slavery, giv. bition of the evils of land monopoly, man shall be deprived of life, liberty, of Congress for internal improvements; of those by whom they have been ally a peace movement, since it will ing homes and employment to its and the importance of homes for all. and there are at this time not less disinherited of their birthright, curb the war spirit by subsidizing to victims, and equalizing the condition These evils can only be removed by In the House of Representatives in than sixty bills before us asking dona- Was it ever designed that men should the public interest the 'raw material,' of the people. It will weaken it by removing their cause. We must a rike 1789, on the Resolution upon Import tions of land, larger or smaller, for become vagrants and beggars by of which our armies are generally com- repudiating the vicious dogma of the at the roof of so much wretchedness. Duties, Mr. Parker moved to insert a various public and private purposes. reason of unjust legislation, stripped posed. By giving homes to the poor, slaveholder that the laborious occupa- The country has been flooded with clause imposing a duty on the impor- Should the Government, however, of their right to the soil, robbed of the idle, the vicious, it will attach tions are dishonorable and degrading discourses and essays on the subject tation of slaves. Roger Sherman, a pause at the point we have now the joys of home, and of those virtues them to the soil, and cause them to the soil of those virtues them to the soil of Will take depositions, acknowledge deeds, member of the Convention from Con- reached in the prosecution of our and affections which ripen only in the feel as the producers of the country shown by confining it within its pres. published in the United States, in nectiont, "could not reconcile himself land policy, there will sti'l remain, family circle? Reason and justice ought to feel, that upon them rest the ent limits, and thus forcing its sup. Great Britain, and in other countries, to the insertion of human beings as an after deducting the sales and grants I revolt at such a conclusion. The policy of in- porters to seek some mode of deliver. showing the proportion of the popular article of duty among goods," etc. have mentioned, the enormous sum of of life, I repeat, is inseparable creasing the number and independence ance from its evils. Pass this bill, lation who are uneducated, and tra-"The Constitution does not consider about fourteen hundred millions of from the resources by which alone it of those who till the ground, in what- therefore, and whilst the South can cing the prevalence of crime to that these persons as a species of prop- acres. The management of this vast can be made a blessing, and fulfill its ever light considered, commends itself have no cause to complain of northern source. This is all well enough, and Deeds, Mortgages, Delivery Bonds, Ex erty." Mr. Madison: It is hoped fund is devolved by the Constitution great end. And this truth is begin- to the Government. England, and aggression, it will shake her peculiar no effort certainly should be spared ecutions, Summonses, Subpornes, Consta that by expressing a national disap- upon Congress, and its just disposition ning to dawn upon the world. The the countries of western Europe, have institution to its foundations. Her by Governments to educate the massble Sales, etc., etc., fo ale at this office at probation of this trade, we may presents one of the gravest questions sentiment is becoming routed in the risen in prosperity, just in proportion three millions of slaves, now toiling, es; but their first and great want is destroy it, and save ourselves from ever brought before the National great heart of Humanity, that the as freedom has been communicated to not under the stars, but the stripes homes, and bread. reproaches, and our posterity from the Legislature. The bill under consideright to a home attaches of necessity the occupiers of the soil. The work of our flag, robbed of their dearest Without these, education, and temimbecility ever attendant on a country eration contemplates a radical change to the right to live, inasmuch as the of tillage was at first carried on by rights, inventoried as goods and perance, and preaching, and praying; filled with slaves." . . . "Every ad- in the policy pursued by the Govern- physical, moral, and intellectual slaves, then by will fail in their purpose. They will ZEEPS on hands Cloths, Cassimeres, dition they (Georgia and Scuth Caro- ment from its foundation to the well-being of each individual cannot tayers, and finally by farmers; the im- humanity by law, may look forward be pulliatives at best. Land monopo-Vestings and Trimmings of every va- lina) receive to the number of their present time. It abandons the idea be secured without it; and that gov- provement of those countries keeping with new hope to their final exodus ly brings into the country a surplus faction to his customers in making neat and slaves tends to weaken and render of holding the public domain as a erament is bound to guaranty it to the pace with these progressive changes from bondage. A number of southern laboring population, whom it first defaction to his customers in making neat and Opposite the Aker House, Winchester, Ind comfortable fits, and doing good and sub- them less capable of self-defence. In source of revenue; it abandons, at the fullest practicable extent. This is one in the condition of the cultivator. — gentlemen. I am aware, view the prives of their natural right to the

He feels no interest in the Govern- first recommended it, it is highly prodifferent character. I take it to be even give him the right to himself .- a slave country. She wouldhave been

Chief Justice Taney has authori- affirmed or established the right of our vacant territory. I am no believer actual settlers who would have made may be torn from him at any moment, bondage, J. W. HENDERSON, - - - - - PROF'R, tatively declared "the right of prop- property in a slave," and thus re- in the doctrines of agrarianism, or it a source of wealth to themselves sold like cattle to the trader, and sep- Mr. Speaker, there is one consideraerty in a slave is distinctly and ex- versed the established law of nature socialism, as these terms are generally and to the public revenue. This is erated from him forever. Labor brings tion pertaining to this bill which de-This Hotel has been thoroughly refitted pressly offirmed in the Constitution," on that subject -that the language of understood. The friends of land re- not only a legalized robbery of the no new comforts to himself or his fam- serves a more distinct consideration and Southern men generally, with the Constitution should be found to form claim no right to interfere with landless; but an exceedingly short. ily. The motive from which he toils than I have given it. I have already their allies in the North, insist that be so explicit as to be irresistible. the laws of property of the several sighted policy. It does not, as I is the lash. He is robbed of his hu- said that the right to life implies, of It is nearer the Depot than any other Ho. the Constitution of the United States, Instead of this being the case, we States, or the vested rights of their shall presently show, give employ. manity by the system which has made necessity, the right to a home upon proprio vigore, carries slavery wher- boldly and defiantly assert that upon citizens. They advocate no leveling ment to labor, nor productiveness to him its victim. Can the cultivation the soil. Man cannot live without ever it reaches; and that, as property, an intelligent examination of each and policy, designed to strip the rich of the soil by such a population add this, and therefore he has the same they have a right to take their slaves all the clauses quoted above, it will be their possessions by any sudden act of increased returns in the shape of wealth or prosperity to the Common- right to it that he has to life itself. J. D. CARMICHAEL, ... Proprietor into the Territories of the United found that such an idea is distinctly legislation. They simply demand, taxation. It is legislative profligacy. wealth? The question answers itself. This measure gives a new sacredness to home. The true interest of agriculture is to I need not point to Virginia, with her this right, a new sacredness to home. empire in the yet unpeopled regions widen the field of its operations as far great natural advantages, her ample It throws the broad shield of the Gov-We publish below a speech deliv- of the great West, Congress shall as practicable, and then, by a judicious resources in all the elements of wealth ernment over that great as and most tions of the slaveholders and their ered by the Hon. George W. Julian, give its sanction to the natural right tillage, to make it yield the very and power, yet dwindling and dying beneficent of all institutions, the family of the landless citizen of the country largest resources compatible with the under the curse of slave labor. But ly. Home is the greate school of virtue in the House of Representatives in to a home upon its soil. The earth population of the country. The cross the river Ohio, and how changed! the centre of the heart's best a fections, prove to the satisfation of every 1857 on the duty of Congress to pass was designed by its Maker for the measure now before us will secure Agriculture is in the most thriving the birth-place of every good impulse, enlightened and disinterested reader, that the declaration of the Chief a Homestead law. This question was free and unbought occupancy of it homesteads to the greatest number of with abundance. The owners of the interests of human life belong to it. nourishment and support of man. The this object by giving independent condition. The whole land teems of every sacred thought." The grand Justice, and these assumptions founded then of but small growth, but has belonged, originally, to the people, cultivators, thus imparting digynit to soil are in general its cultivators, and It has been said, that just so far as the since grown to be one of the great and and the cultivation of it was the labor, and stimulating its activity. It these constitute the best portion of the family is improved, its duties perform-The Chief Justice has not quoted absorbing principles of the Party of legitimate price of its fruits. This is may be taken for granted as a general population. Labor, instead of b ing ed, and its blessings prized, all artifithe doctrine of nature, confirmed by truth, that a nation will be powerful, looked upon as degrading, is thus ren- cial institutions, including Government the teachings of the Bible. In the pro perous and happy, in proportion dered honorable and independent .- itself, are superseded. The most imporhowever, intend to present every word earliest advocates of this measure, first peopling of the earth, it was as to the number of independent cultiva- The ties of interest, as well as the tant part of the education of every man of that "great charter of human liber- and deserves at least some credit for free to all its inhabitants as the sun- tors of its soil. All experience stronger ties of affection, animate the and woman is received at home. The ty" which is or can be claimed to its present popularity. We ask for it light and the air; and every man has, demonstrates that it is most favorable toils of the husbandmen, and strength- germs of character are there moulded by nature, as perfect a right to a to agriculture to have every plantation en his attachment to the Government; and developed by the plastic power of reasonable portion of it, upon which cultivated by its proprietor; nor is it for the man who loves his home will the parent. The Government, there to subsist, as he has to inflate his less conducive to the same object, or love his country. His own private fore, by every legitmate means, should lungs with the atmosphere which less important to the general welfare, emolument and the public good are favor the improvement, the security of surrounds it, or to drink of the waters ta every citizen who desires it linked together in his thoughts, and the family, and the strength and puriwhich pass over its surface. This should be the owner of a plantation, whilst he is rearing a virtuous family ty of the domestic relations; for by so right is as inalienable, as emphatically and engaged in its cultivation. The on his ewn homestead, he is contrib. doing, it makes strong the most en-God-given, as the right to liberty or disregard of these simple and just uting wealth and strength to the State. during foundations of our freedom .life; and Government, when it de- principles in the actual policy of Population is rapidly on the increase. This should be the first object of its prives him of it, independent of his | pations, has been one of the great | whilst new towns are springing up al- | care. 'It is idle,' says a leading Louown act, is guilty of a wanton scourges of the world. We now have most as by magic. Manufactures and don newspaper, to talk of religious usurpation of power, a flagrant abuse it in our power, without revolution or the mechanic arts, in general, are in instruction, whilst the great mass of of its trust. In founding States, and violence, to carry them into practice, a flourishing condition, whilst the the people have no homes. How are rearing the social fabric, these princi- and reap their beneficent freits; and a country is dotted over with churches. we to teach, how are we to instruct; ples should always have been re- nobler work cannot engage the school-houses and similar habitations. what can the schoolmaster achieve, Agriculture, granting to every head of a cognized. Every man, indeed, on thoughts, or enlist the sympathies of The secret of all this is the distribution what the preacher, when the intellects family a Homestead of one hundred and entering into a state of society, and the statesman. No governmental tion of landed property, and its culti which the one would elevate, and the sixty acres out of the public domain, partaking of its advantages, must policy is so wise as that which keeps vation by freemen. But even in the hearts which the other would teach, the land for an uninterrupted period of necessarily submit the natural right constantly before the mind of the virgin State of Ohio, the curse of land are left to the cruel training of the of which I speak (as he must every citizen the promotion of the public monopoly, or white slavery, is begin- streets? Thousands and tens of thonother) to such regulations as may be good, by a scrupulous regard for his ming to exhibit its bitter fruits, as i sands of our children have no other established for the gen ral good; yet private interest. This principle will everywhere, if unchecked by wise education, no other christianity, than mittee of the Whole, being under con. it can never be understood that he bas should be stamped upon all our legis- legislation. Let Congress, therefore, the education and christianity of the renounced it altogether, save by his lation, since it will establish the see to it, in the beginning, by an or- pavement. They have been turned own alienation or forfeiture. It at strongest of all ties between him and ganic law for the public domain yet adrift when scarcely able to walk un Mr. Speaker: The anxiety I feel taches to him, and inheres in him, in the State. A philosophic writer of unsold, that this curse shall be ex- aided. Another infant has taken its STORE in the Brick Warehouse, near the by adding to the whole number of for the success of the measure now humanity, and should be sacredly the last century, in sketching a per- cluded from it. The enactment of place at the mother's breast; and the free persons, including those bound before us, and its great importance, as guarded as one of those fundamental feetly-organized commonwealth, has such a law should not be delayed a child of two years has made acquainsing'e hour. Now is the golden mo- tance with the pavemnt. And so com-"As every man ploughed his own field, ment' for action. The rapidity with mence the out-of-door education which > under the prodigal policy of the Gov- Not less in point here as an illustraernment, renders all-important the tion, nor less truthful, is the following sketch of the education of a pau-

Mr. Speaker, I have spoken, inci- per child, by Harriet Hartineau cussion of this bill, and at the same it must be construed strictly, as a "Every mon finding his own well-being dentally, of slaver. This, I am house in some provided that the same it must be construed strictly, as a "Every mon finding his own well-being dentally, of slaver. This, I am house in some provided that First, the contemporaneous history: time, by parliamentary expedients, to mere right to breathe, looking no in the constitution of his country, took a aware, may be considered a violation house) in some unwholesome room or in Convention (see Madison and avoid any direct action upon it. It farther, and keeping out of view the lively interest in its preservation: if a of the final settlement, the remarks ceiler, amidst damp and dirt, and the Elliott's debates) Madison said he seems to be troublesome to gentlemen. great purpose of existence. The right bly sanative measures, ratified by Con- noises and sights of vice or folly. He house, to defend, he carried into the combat the adoption of the policy for which I ness which worries his temper, and in body, till at last he dies as the [oct6] from all the jails in Europe; wretches ment. This, in my judgment, is the powers and affections of a man-this pare Virginia with Ohio. In the for- policy been adopted by the Govern- sure of a large supply, and then pre-